Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reflections on Today's Readings:

FOCUS: God offers us the perspective of eternity. In a secular world, so many people today have a limited perspective, valuing and pursuing what they see before their eyes and what benefits them in this current life. God calls us, as followers of Jesus, to take the longer view – to pursue eternal values, trusting that God will also give us what we need here and now.

LITURGY OF THE WORD: In the Book of Wisdom, Solomon sees beyond the beauties and attractions of this world and chooses the eternal values of wisdom and prudence. In the second reading, we learn of the keen edge of the word of God. In the Gospel, a rich young man is hampered by his wealth from responding to the call to follow Jesus.

TOO MUCH INFORMATION!

There is a common expression: "Too much information!" We usually use it when people tell us details about their lives that we don't want or need to know. Today, when James and John ask Jesus a simple question, making their request for places of honor in the kingdom, a simple answer might have been in order. Instead, as he often does, Jesus answers a question with a question; today it's about drinking the cup of suffering. Then, once the others are indignant over James and John's outrageous request, he proceeds to give them what may have been "too much information" for followers who were simply interested in the pursuit of glory. But this information, though it can sometimes seem "too much" for us, is essential for our lives as disciples. In Isaiah, in Hebrews, and in Mark today, we learn this information. It is in suffering, in weakness, in self-giving service to others, that we come to understand the kingdom. It is the information we need to find our place and come to be honored in the reign of God.

World Mission Sunday

Together with young people, let us be Voices for Mission, October 20/21, 2018

Next week, we will celebrate World Mission Sunday. Pope Francis invites the entire Church to support the mission dioceses in Africa, Asia, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe, where priests, religious and lay leaders serve the world's most vulnerable communities. Please keep the Pope's missions in your prayers, and be generous in next week's collection for the Society for the Propagation of Faith. Envelopes are in the pews.

"I AM A MISSION ON THIS EARTH; THAT IS THE REASON WHY I AM HERE IN THIS WORLD."

ONE SUNDAY TO HELP THE WHOLE WORLD!

St. Anastasia Catholic School Student Non-Discrimination Policy

St. Anastasia Catholic School (the school), mindful of its mission to be a witness to the love of Christ for all, admits students regardless of race, color, national origin, and/or ethnic origin to all rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school.

The school does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, disability, medical condition, sex, or national and/or ethnic origin in the administration of educational policies and practices, scholarship programs, and athletic and other school-administered programs, although certain athletic leagues and other programs may limit participation and some archdiocesan schools operate as single-sex schools.

While the school does not discriminate against students with special needs, a full range of services may not always be available to them. Decisions concerning the admission and continued enrollment of a student in the school are based upon the student's emotional, academic, and physical abilities and the resources available to the school in meeting the student's needs. This Catholic Elementary School publishes the above policy in the staff and parent/student handbooks, public relations/recruitment brochures and in other publications such as the parish bulletin and school newspaper. The school also publishes applicable grievance procedures in the staff and parent/student handbooks.

I wish to THANK all the volunteers who helped me with the receptions for Monsignor Vadakin both Fri., Sept. 28th & Sat., Sept. 29th. Your helping hands and giving spirit are a testament to the community that Monsignor built at St. Anastasia.

Thank you for your help in celebrating the life of a wonderful man who brought us together in faith, family and community.
Mary Michlovich

FACT OF LIFE: Euthanasia of Children?

Excerpt From Angelus News/Los Angeles Archdiocese
Doctors from Toronto's Hospital for Sick Children have laid out policies and procedures for administering medically assisted death to children, including scenarios where the parents would not be informed until after the child dies.... In a flow chart that outlines how a medically induced death would occur at Sick Kids, authors Carey DeMichelis, Randi Alotnik Shaul and Adam Rapoport do not mention conversation with family or parents about how the child dies until after the death occurs in the "reflection period". Dear God, You tell us in Proverbs that the foolish and the wicked lack wisdom and understanding. We pray that you touch the hearts of doctors who administer care to sick children, seeing in each child the face of God.

October, Month of the Rosary

Oh Lord, Jesus Christ,
Our Mediator with the Father,
who has been pleased to appoint
the Most Blessed Virgin, Thy Mother, to be our Mother also,
and our Mediatrix with Thee,
mercifully grant that whosoever comes to Thee seeking Thy favors may rejoice to receive all of them through her. Amen.

The family that prays together stays together!

Did you Know? The Importance of Emotional

Boundaries - We discuss the importance of physical boundaries quite a bit, teaching children to understand privacy and the difference between good touches and bad touches. But emotional boundaries are just as important, if not more so, because abuse victims are often manipulated into trusting and believing their abusers. Predators can violate emotional boundaries fairly easily, worming their way into a child's life and creating a false relationship. Parents should talk to their children about appropriate boundaries for their emotional relationships — with teachers, the parents of their friends, and other adults in their lives. Children do not always have the emotional maturity to set their own boundaries, so parents should be on the lookout for anything that seems inappropriate or "off" about the relationships their children form with other adults. To learn more about emotional boundaries and how to maintain them, email jvienna@la-archdiocese.org.

Faith for Kids

For you shall eat the fruit of your handiwork. - Psalm 128:2

Ben's older sister Linda is always texting. So when her Mom asked Linda to sprinkle lots of cinnamon on the sliced apples they were baking, Linda was still tapping out a message as she mumbled. "Sure." Later, everyone tasted the baked apples. Yuck! Linda uses lots of red pepper, not cinnamon!

When we are careless and make mistakes, no one is happy. God wants us to care about everything we do. Today, do small chores carefully. You will be helping your family in big ways!

God, help me use my eyes and hands the right way.
