First Sunday of Advent
Reflections on Today's Readings:

FOCUS: The Jesus who is born in time and history is also the Christ who will come in glory to judge all. The season of Advent begins with a call to perseverance and vigilance as we prepare to celebrate not just the historical event of the birth of Jesus of Nazareth, but our central belief that Christ will come again in glory to judge all humanity. Our readings are chosen to help us reflect on this great truth and be prepared for the coming of Christ.

LITURGY OF THE WORD: In a time of great upheaval and chaos for Israel, Jeremiah reassures the people of better days to come, when a descendent of David will rule them with integrity and honesty. Looking forward to the return of Christ in glory, Saint Paul reminds us that we must strive for true holiness now. In the Gospel, Jesus reminds us that no matter what befalls us in this life, we are to have confidence in him, the Son of Man.

ADVENT WREATH LIGHTING & REFLECTION

The Season of Advent is soon upon us. Advent is the season of waiting for Jesus' coming. During this season we focus on being ready to receive Christ. We need people, individuals and families to volunteer to participate in this liturgical activity.

Your presence and participation in this activity would be a great blessing.

The sign-up poster is in the Vestibule this weekend.

St. Anastasia Bible Study

"Where is your faith?"

The Gospel of St. Luke is a beautiful and powerful portrait of Jesus Christ. In its pages, Our Lord often challenges His listeners with questions – each one an invitation to draw closer to Him.

Our study of the Gospel of Luke begins on Tuesday, January 8. Attend either the morning session, 9:00-10:30 am, or the evening session, 7:30-9:00 pm.

Please register by December 13 at the Parish Office. Cost for materials is $20 ($25 after December 13).

AWAITING THE SALVATION OF GOD

The world does not seem big enough to contain the jubilation of the first reading. In the Gospel reading, the Roman empire isn't big enough, either. The great powers of Rome are named and made to stand waiting for the arrival of God's salvation. And we find Paul meditating joyfully on what really matters. According to Baruch, the city of Jerusalem is like a person standing on tiptoe looking for God's salvation, which is coming from the east. Those who were led away on foot, heads down, now come back, a proud people. Why, the very way is smoothed out. The path is lined with fragrant, lush trees. It can't get any better than this, can it? Well, yes, it can. For a voice calls out in the desert. Here is the beginning of the salvation of God. Copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co.

Ministry equips us to deepen our love for God and share our faith...

Origins of Advent

Advent began sometime after the 4th century as a time of preparation for Epiphany—not in anticipation of Christmas. Epiphany celebrates the manifestation of Christ by remembering the visit of the Magi and the Baptism of Jesus. At this time new Christians were baptized and received into the faith, and so the early Church instituted a 40-day period of fasting and repentance.

Later in the 6th century, Pope St Gregory the Great was the first to associate this season of Advent with the coming of Christ. Originally it was not the coming of Christ-child that was anticipated, but rather, the second coming of Christ.

By the Middle Ages the Church had extended the celebration of Advent to the familiar format we know today. The early weeks are rich with the prophecies of Isaiah, reminding us to wait and prepare for the coming of the Messiah. Later, the pace quickens and we focus more directly on the events leading up to Jesus' birth.

Faith for Kids

Beware that your hearts do not become drowsy... - Luke 21:34

What happens when you are extra tired? For most people, it can be hard to pay attention to what we are doing. We can't give our best effort. Jesus warns us not to let our hearts get drowsy. We can keep our hearts rested and energized with prayer. We can also turn to Jesus in the sacraments, especially the Eucharist and Reconciliation. There we get strength to live as Jesus wants us to live.

Jesus, wake me up so
I can always act with love.

Did you Know?

Go beyond just saying "no" to teach children about polite exceptions

Rules about politeness seem to be in contradiction to the rules we teach children about avoiding predators and responding to behaviors that make them uncomfortable. It's important to expand on the idea of saying "no" when someone asks them to cross a boundary. Explain that there are situations where being rude is acceptable, if that's what it takes, and help them understand that being polite has its limits. Each day, approximately 225 abortions take place in Southern California. Half are to women who have aborted previously. These women are members of our families, fellow parishioners, co-workers, friends. Many experience severe depression and trauma following abortion. They, and the men and other family members touched by abortion, are in great need of healing mercy.
