GOD'S LAW

Scripture has always held God's law to be the path to human happiness. In today's first reading, Ezra the priest reads the scroll of the law to the people returned from exile. They weep—then are joyful. Israel's relationship with God had always been defined by how they kept and lived God's law. The author of Psalm 96 likewise praises the law of God as the source of wisdom, joy and enlightenment, purity and justice.

In his advice to the bickering Corinthians, Paul points out that, just as God has made all parts of a human body essential for the health of the whole, living as "Christ's body" requires that each member be recognized as necessary for the good of all. Finally, in Luke's Gospel Jesus claims that the Spirit is sending him to relieve human suffering. Like Ezra, he is reading from a scroll, proclaiming God's "law" of mercy to those in need.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Human history reveals many periods where people lost a sense of God's transcendence. It may even be argued that human beings have been wandering and lost more than they have been at home and focused. Human nature being what it is, we struggle with who God really is — the God of our salvation history or the "gods" of human constructs. Relying on our own designs and pursuits, we forget that we really are meant to listen to One upon whom the Spirit of the Lord rests, Jesus Christ, and not to ourselves. That same history that reveals our fickleness and infidelity also reveals God's constancy and faithfulness. God always finds us.

As people wander and fumble to find their way, God is there bringing them back to holiness and giving them the assurance of His presence. We have to allow God's Word, God's life, to touch us and change us. It can make us more flexible and attentive to the sacred in all facets of life so that every day is one that is holy. Every day is a time when fulfillment is possible for one's soul. Jesus stood before those gathered in the synagogue as the fulfillment of words of promise that were echoed long ago. God doesn't forget. He always comes for us.

Now, it is time to remember to go to God. Sometimes our lives are so confused and tangled that it is difficult to see the Word and hand of God. But when we realize, deep within, the depth of friendship God offers to us it really has the power to turn sadness to joy. The promise is fulfilled. Going frequently to God's Word, allowing ourselves to be enriched and rejuvenated, and pondering the certainty of God's fidelity and promise permanently transforms us. We will be more aware of the sacred and the holy and less invested in things that pull us away.

FAITH FORMATION

FAITH @ HOME

HEAR

Grab your Bible and look up the Gospel reading
Gospel - Nehemiah 8:2-4a, 5-6, 8-10

PRAY

Take a moment of silence to reflect on the Gospel words:

"The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord."

During this prayer time, what words resonated with you? How do these words bring spirit and life to you at this moment?

TALK

We are all the Body of Christ!

- How do we use our gifts and talents to live out the example of Jesus?
- How are we living this call of Missionary Discipleship?
- How is Jesus asking you to take care of the members of this Body of Christ?

Consider one of these activities to do as an individual or family:

- Reach out to someone you prayed for
- Call someone in grief
- Donate to your Parish/Local pantry

Share as a household/ family:

- How did this prayer time and activity help you grow closer to Jesus?

CONFIRMATION PROGRAM

Please keep our HS Confirmation Y1 Candidates in your prayers as they prepare to go on retreat this month. May they come to know you, the one true God, and Jesus Christ, whom you have sent. [Jn 17:3]

KIDS' CORNER

[JESUS] APPOINTED TWELVE, WHOM HE ALSO NAMED APOSTLES, THAT THEY MIGHT BE WITH HIM AND HE MIGHT SEND THEM FORTH TO PREACH...

MARK 3:14

We owe the apostles a lot for telling us about Jesus. They preached to many people, and their words have been handed down through many centuries. Thanks to them, we know today what Jesus said and did. We know about his love for us and the guidance he gives us each day. We owe a lot to our parents, pastors, and teachers too. They help us remember Jesus' words and know his love. Imagine how much we would be missing if we knew nothing about Jesus.

LORD, THANK YOU FOR ALL THE PEOPLE WHO HELP ME KNOW YOU.

From the book entitled "Living Faith Kids" by Imprimatur Bishop Mark S. Rivituso

SAINT OF THE WEEK | ST. THOMAS AQUINAS

One of the most famous members of the Dominican Order, St. Thomas Aquinas (1225 – 1274) is well-known by many for his theological work, "The Summa Theologiae." Born in Italy, his mother wanted him to become a Benedictine and had high hopes that he would eventually become abbot of Monte Cassino, where he spent much of his youth. To change his vocation, she had him kidnapped by his brothers on his way to Paris at the age of 19. He spent two years in their captivity. Despite this, nothing could shake him from his vocation to become a Dominican priest and he was eventually released. Once free, he went to Paris and then to Cologne, where he finished his studies with Albert the Great.

His greatest contribution to the Catholic Church is his writings. The unity, harmony, and continuity of faith and reason, of revealed and natural human knowledge, encompasses his writings. The Summa Theologiae, his last and, unfortunately, uncompleted work, deals with the whole of Catholic theology.

The patron saint of teachers, theologians and students, St. Thomas Aquinas died in 1274. His life and the impact he had on the whole Church, however, remains alive today.

DID YOU KNOW?

January 22-23 || Talk to your teenagers about Instagram

Teens and social media have been in the news a lot over the past several months, as research shows how damaging social media sites can be for self-esteem, productivity, and overall well-being. Instagram has been called out, with research citing harm done by filters and by bullying in private messages. How can parents protect their children from the negative impacts such a popular and prevalent site cause? Experts recommend keeping open lines of communication with your teenagers, talking to them often about what they see and how they feel about it. Use age and activity limits, or monitoring, to keep tabs on how your teens are using Instagram and other social media sites. For more information, read the Associated Press' "Instagram and teens: How to keep your kids safe," at <https://apnews.com/article/technology-social-media-instagram-parents-guide-d5124f7229bbd6a892d9ac487cc04f96>.
