TO BE A PROPHET

Today's readings show us what it is like to be a prophet. As Jeremiah recounts his call, God warns him that he will need strength and perseverance to withstand the hostility he will face from "Judah's kings and princes" and "its priests and people" (Jeremiah 1:18b). God also assures him that they "will not prevail over you, for I am with you" (1:19). The psalm reflects both of these struggles as well as deliverance from them ("salvation").

This is exactly what Jesus experiences in today's Gospel. After he claims that his own mission is the same as what Isaiah proclaimed, at first the people marvel at his "gracious words" (Luke 4:22). Soon, however, they become suspicious, skeptical, and hostile, even threatening to kill him. But just as God promised to deliver Jeremiah, so Jesus "passed through the midst of them and went away" (4:30).

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

"Love is patient, love is kind..." As familiar as these words are, they never seem to stray into the territory of becoming trite or silly. At their core they communicate a truth about us and about our Creator that never fails to inspire.

But despite the fact that you've probably heard it at many weddings over time, First Corinthians isn't just for newlyweds. It wasn't written for married folks. It's for every single one of us, in every state of life and every social situation, in every country and culture and language across the globe.

Which means that First Corinthians is even for the online world. It's for Facebook and Twitter and Instagram and all the other platforms I'm forgetting (there seems to be a new one every day, doesn't there?).

A sense of division - whether rooted in politics, culture or anything else - is growing in our world, and it's never more obvious than when we observe interactions online. It is far easier, after all, to remember what love is when a human being of flesh and blood stands before us. When all we see is an avatar or a profile picture on a screen - especially accompanied by an opinion with which we vehemently disagree - even the most loving Christians can throw First Corinthians out the window.

As everyday stewards we know that we are charged to be not only gracious but grateful. We receive others but we also give thanks for what they bring to us - even if that's an opportunity to "strive eagerly for the greatest spiritual gifts." So before the next time you post anything online, I suggest giving First Corinthians a read- and remember, love never fails.

- Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible

God's Plan of Salvation is a sacred mystery that He has chosen to reveal to us through the Holy Scriptures.

In Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible we'll travel with Jeff Cavins through space and time to follow the 'narrative thread' of how God's plan for salvation has been unfolding to this very day.

The study's color-coded timeline is the key to understanding each period of this great plan, from Adam and Eve to the Second Coming of Jesus Christ.

From Alpha to Omega, you'll see how each book of the Bible 'fits' together to tell the whole story — the story of the Father's unfailing love for you.

Seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you.

Matthew 7:7

This 8-week study begins March 1.

Please register by February 14 at the Parish Office or at St-Anastasia.org.

St. Anastasia Catholic Church 2022 Bible Study

FAITH FORMATION

FAITH @ HOME

HEAR

Grab your Bible and look up the Gospel reading Gospel - Luke 4:21-30

PRAY

Together as one, we invite you to pray the Act of Love.

O Lord God, I love you above all things and I love my neighbor for your sake because you are the highest, infinite and perfect good, worthy of all my love. In this love I intend to live and die. Amen.

TALK

In the Gospel today, we hear that Jesus was not being accepted in his hometown of Nazareth. He was sharing the words of old prophets but the people in his town did not respect what he was sharing because he was challenging them.

1. How do you confront challenges in your life? When you have a problem, do you have someone that you trust to talk to?
2. Where do you see God present in the challenges of your life? Remember God's presence through all your life experiences.

Every morning, before getting out of bed, invite God to be present with you throughout the day, no matter the challenges or joys.

Win these friends of yours not with blows, but with gentleness and kindness. So begin right now to show them that sin is ugly and virtue beautiful.

KIDS' CORNER

JESUS SAID TO HIS DISCIPLES. "IS A LAMP BROUGHT IN TO BE PLACED UNDER A BUSHEL BASKET OF UNDER A BED, AND NOT TO BE PLACED ON A LAMPSTAND?"

MARK 4:21

Jesus is the light of the world. Each of us carries that light inside us. Jesus is like a roaring bonfire, and we are like flickering flames. Do we let that light shine in us? Do we let others see the love of Jesus in how we act, or do we cover it up? When we love others the way Jesus taught us, we let his light shine into the world for all to see. When we are jealous or unkind, we cover up that light. It's not always easy to let the light of Christ shine through us. But it's always what God asks us to do.

LORD JESUS. HELP ME SHINE YOUR LIGHT IN THE WORLD!

From the book entitled "Living Faith Kids" by Imprimatur Bishop Mark S. Rivituso
