GOSPEL MEDITATION

What we say and how we say it reveals the true intentions of our hearts. The content and manner of our speech is a window into the recesses of our souls. Our consciences, attitudes, sentiments, weaknesses, and motives are displayed. As much as we think we can hide the truth of our lives from others, we cannot. Who we really are is not only expressed on our lips but is written on our faces. Jesus says precisely this, "For every tree is known by its own fruit." What does the fruit of our lives say about us?

Because we like to play the game of hide and seek with ourselves, in pretending that we are hiding we deflect attention others may give to us by becoming more critical of others. After all, the more time one can spend analyzing others' behavior the less time one has to look at his or herself. Often, the behaviors we abhor most in others are the very ones we are guilty of ourselves. We just don't know it yet. The more we put ourselves in the role of a judge, the more satisfaction and control we seem to achieve. Yet, what about ourselves? In focusing our attention on the beams in others' eyes, the aridity and barrenness of our lives goes unchecked. St. Ambrose reminds us that "no one heals himself by wounding another." Bringing our brothers and sisters down by being overly critical, serves no positive purpose.

But the one who knows how easy it is to fall into sin and weakness and how quickly errors in judgment can be made, knows the depth of true compassion, mercy, and kindness. Having recognized our own poor choices, misguided opinions, negative emotions, and ability to do horrendous things, we can be more sympathetic and understanding of where others may be. We are designed to be mentors and guides to one another. In walking the journey together, we can help each other become the best we can be. Humility is the order of the day and the primary virtue that prevents us from being hypocrites.

PLANTED IN THE HOUSE OF THE LORD

Grocery delivery apps are all the rage these days, and I can't deny the convenience of tapping your finger a few times and seeing your week's shopping dropped on the doorstep. But there is one aspect of this trend that seems to make a lot of shoppers nervous — fruits and vegetables.

A lot of us have strong opinions on our fresh produce and aren't ready to delegate this highly subjective selection process to a total stranger. My father was a produce manager and I remember as a child learning about the complexities of choosing correctly. Getting a bad bag of under ripe tomatoes after shopping on an app could easily sour one on the whole idea.

Forrest Gump said life is like a box of chocolates. I say, we're all like grab-bags of produce dumped on someone's doorstep — but if we're Christians who live our faith publicly, we're stamped with the name of God. If your thumb is green enough, you know that you can tell a lot about a gardener from the produce he grows. We who are planted in the house of the Lord — what do we reveal about our Gardener?

What do our actions show of His teachings? What do our words reflect of His voice? What does our strength reveal of the soil from which we sprang and the life-giving waters that nourished us?

When we open ourselves up to those we encounter, let's make a special effort to show the care we have had — lest our peers come away from the experience thinking God doesn't know how to garden, when in reality, it's us who don't always know how to grow.

FAITH FORMATION

FAITH @ HOME

HEAR

Grab your Bible and look up the Gospel reading
Gospel - Mark 1:40-45

PRAY

Begin your prayer time by reciting the "Jesus Prayer":

When you breathe in say, "Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the Living God."

When you breathe out say, "Have mercy on me a sinner." Recite this three times.

We hear in the Gospel, that Jesus cautions us about being more concerned over the splinter in someone else's eye, rather than the beam in our own.

Talk with Jesus and ask him to help you identify your own blind spots in your eyes or in your heart.

Ask Jesus how you can live more like Him – to be more humane, humble, loving, compassionate, and kind.

Ask Jesus what you might need to bring to the Sacrament of Reconciliation, to cleanse your heart and soul, from the times in your life where you have failed to live as Jesus asks us to live.

TALK

Take a few minutes to watch this reflection from John Michael Talbot (https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=s8uC\_ooJERM) based on today's Gospel. After watching the video, spend some time reflecting on the questions below, and share your responses with a close family member or friend.

- When do you find yourself judging other people?
- What in your own heart might need to be cleansed so you can bear good fruit?

RCIA PROGRAM

Congratulations to our Catechumens William Jensen and Anthony Barrillas, as they present themselves in front of Archbishop Gomez and accept their final stage of preparation as they continue their journey to celebrate the Sacraments of Initiation during our Easter Vigil.

KIDS' CORNER

... THE LORD IS COMPASSIONATE AND MERCIFUL

JAMES 5:11

What exactly does it mean that God is compassionate and merciful? Well, God created us and loves us with an unending love. He wants to hear what is going on in our lives, and he listens to our prayers. God is with us in the times of trouble. God will never turn away from us. God forgives us when we've done something we're not proud of.

What else does it mean that God is compassionate and merciful? It means he calls us to be the same for others. Knowing how God loves you, listens to you, forgives you and is with you in times of trouble, how can you be compassionate and merciful to someone today?

GOD, HELP ME SHOW COMPASSION AND MERCY TODAY.

From the book entitled "Living Faith Kids" by Imprimatur Bishop Mark S. Rivotuso

CONFIRMATION PROGRAM

Please keep our HS Confirmation Y2 Candidates in your prayers as they prepare to go on retreat this weekend. May they come to know you, the One True God, and Jesus Christ, whom you have sent. [Jn 17:3]
