God's love story reveals itself in our stories, experiences, and aspirations. We are all prodigal sons and daughters. There are many times in our lives when we would "sell our souls" in order to pursue our passions. We pursued what we wanted without regard for others or God. We have sowed our oats, thrown ourselves into careless pleasures, spent what we know we ought to have saved, turned our backs on those we love and abused gifts we have been given. We even hit bottom and realized the silliness and self-destruction of it all. We needed to come home. We knew we erred and needed a gentle presence to show us God's unconditional love. This wayward journey home changed us.

As much as we need to be welcomed, we are also the one who needs to do the welcoming and mercy giving. Those we love need our guidance, but they don't always take it. We know that what they are doing is off the mark, self-destructive and wrong. We have to let them go and let it happen, even though they might get hurt. As we wait and hope, they choose to make their way back to us. They don't need us to judge them. They have done enough of that to themselves. We immediately embrace them and are just happy they're home. God uses us to help heal them. Knowing how much we craved understanding and forgiveness ourselves, we can now freely give it away. God uses what he has taught us to teach others. ...

We are also the entitled ones. At least we "think" we are entitled. After all, we work hard for what we have. We cannot get our heads around the idea that someone can get something that I really deserve! If I do what I'm supposed to do, I ought to be rewarded for that, right?

If I do something wrong, I ought to pay the consequences. This is justice, isn't it? This is not God's justice. God is all about love, mercy, compassion, and forgiveness. God's justice is love freely given without merit. We carry the stories of the prodigal son, the unconditional forgiving father, and the entitled angry brother with us. When we make friends with all three, humbly telling those stories to others makes us Christ's ambassadors. © LPI

March 26-27 || Understanding appropriate behaviors

Most children engage in age-appropriate behaviors, exploring their bodies to understand how they work. It is important for parents and caregivers to understand the difference between natural, healthy curiosity and inappropriate behaviors that would raise red flags suggesting possible abuse. Any sexual behaviors that a child exhibits in a way that is hostile, aggressive, or overtly sexual should raise concern. Learn more about these differences in the VIRTUS® article "The Issue of Child-on-Child Sexual Abuse" at lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.

HOUSEKEEPING

Please be sure to not drop off any prayer cards, relics, or announcements in the church vestibule without prior approval from the Parish Office. We don't have much table space and take pride in keeping the House of the Lord tidy. Please contact the Parish Office who can add to our "News on Wheel" board.

CATHOLIC QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

QUESTION

Can we talk in Church?

ANSWER

Friends, at Church we are called to be still and pray. Let God do His thing. We need the quiet to take in and digest as much of what God is there to give us. Talking in Church before or after Masses is a distraction. If what is being said is not itself sinful, it is morally neutral to talk. However, Catholic moral teaching tells us that "circumstances" change the moral character of actions. Talking in Church when not demanded by necessity is at least venially sinful for the following reasons:

1) It is the Lord's House, which Jesus taught was "a house of prayer" (Mt 21:13) and thus should be used according to its purpose.

2) It is a violation of justice against actual neighbors who are trying to pray. Again, necessity permits talking, just as it permits practicing the music before Mass or encouraged teaching moments with children learning about etiquette at Mass. The truth of this is shown by the strict guard for silence in Churches around the world. Even tourists viewing architecture and art, are mindful to keep to a whisper.

3) It is a violation of charity, since as Christians we should be going "out of ourselves" to look after others first. If a person crassly and knowingly disregarded others trying to pray, or worst of all did so with malice or contempt, it could even be a mortal sin against charity.

If friends approach us before or after Mass, wanting to start a conversation, a simple gesture inviting them to follow you outside the Church to talk is appropriate. We give a great witness to our fellow Catholics when we first lead by example. We always encourage good hospitality by sharing a friendly smile within the Church to friends and our new parishioners. After Mass, greet them in the Courtyard to talk and laugh to your hearts content.

Pastoral Message excerpts - Fr. Carl Arcosa

KIDS' CORNER

GOD IS OUR REFUGE AND OUR STRENGTH. AN EVER-PRESENT HELP IN DISTRESS. THEREFORE WE FEAR NOT...

PSALM 46:2-3

Everyone is afraid sometimes. Even adults. That's why it's important to remember that God is our refuge and strength. a refuge is a place where you can be safe and cared for. God loves you, cares for you and protects you in his own way. Remind yourself of this often so that when you do have a bad day, it's a little easier to remember. And when you are afraid, keep praying to God, remembering that God is always with you and cares about everything that happens to you.

LORD, HELP ME REMEMBER THAT YOU ARE ALWAYS WITH ME. IN GOOD TIMES AND BAD.
