GOSPEL MEDITATION

Pope St. John Paul II rightly taught, "To believe in Jesus is to accept what he says, even when it runs contrary to what others are saying. It means rejecting the lure of sin, however attractive it may be, in order to set out on a difficult path of Gospel virtues." Acceptance, rejection, suffering, betrayal, fear, reluctance, persecution, and painful, undeserved and unjust death are all played out in dramatic fashion today. Jesus spoke of God's unconditional love, mercy, and forgiveness. Who doesn't like hearing about love, especially God's? Jesus did not have backs turned on him, face intense suffering, and succumb to a horrific death because he spoke of God's love. All of those things occurred because of the implications of actually believing in God's love.

God's love comes with an intimate and equal bond with love of neighbor. This moves the believer outward to truly see their brothers and sisters as equals and compels them to work for a world that mirrors God's kingdom: a world based on justice, peace, mercy, and forgiveness. Sometimes, people want to keep God's love to themselves and use it solely for their own benefit. When they only want to use God's love to justify their own intentions and for their own projects, problems occur.

Sin makes something hurtful, destructive, and self-serving look very attractive and justifiable. The lure of sin creates friends who begin to believe the lie that the sin expounds. This is what happened on Calvary. ...

When you begin actually doing what Jesus is saying and translate love into action, it inevitably will upset popular and longstanding conventions and structures. Many of these serve to protect status, foster personal gain and success, and further divide those who have from those who do not. Most people who hear the Gospel are attracted to what they hear, at first. When they realize that it means standing apart from popular opinion, even if that opinion is against the Gospel and sinful, they cower back in fear and join the throngs shouting, "Crucify him!" There is an ambivalence found in many believers as they struggle with whether their belief is strong enough "to set out on the difficult path of Gospel virtues."

It takes a lot of courage to admit that the system is broken. It takes even more courage to point out the sin. And it takes an unbreakable love of God to then accept the consequences of doing so.

SECOND COLLECTION

Our Second Collection today April 10, 2022 is for our Building Fund. It is important that we continue to invest in the maintenance, repairs and upgrades of our existing facilities to help better serve the current needs of our parish community. Our recent improvements include the remodeling of our confessional and the completion of the Divine Mercy Chapel.

FLOCKNOTE

FAITH @ HOME

HEAR

Grab your Bible and look up the Gospel reading Gospel - John 8:1-11

PRAY

In the Gospel today, we see that Jesus made a triumphant entry into Jerusalem riding on a donkey – this was to fulfill the prophecy. In Zechariah 9:9, the prophet speaks of a future king presenting himself to Jerusalem while riding on a humble donkey.

This foreshadowed something that happened about 500 years later. As explained in Luke 19:35-37, Jesus rode into Jerusalem on a donkey and presented himself as the Messiah, the King. The people were eagerly awaiting the Messiah. Some of the people recognized Jesus as the Messiah and shouted "Hosanna" and other words of praise. God sent us His son, Jesus, because God loved us. Jesus was a powerful king who chose to love us by sacrificing his life on the cross. As we enter into Holy Week, hold a crucifix in your hand and pray with Jesus. Contemplate His great love for you. Feel deep gratitude for His love, mercy and forgiveness. What words of praise would you offer to Jesus? Pray with Jesus and ask Him to help you love others unconditionally.

TALK

Think about a time when you experienced the unconditional love of a family member or friend. Begin by recalling the experience of receiving this love. How did this unconditional love touch your heart? Journal your thoughts and feelings about this experience.

Now, recall a time when you showed unconditional love to a family member or friend. How did you feel when you touched another with this action of unconditional love? Journal your thoughts and feelings about this experience. Sit down with a family member or close friend and share these unconditional love stories. After the exchange of these stories, pray together the prayer that Jesus taught us... "Our Father."

KIDS' CORNER

THE LORD IS GRACIOUS AND MERCIFUL, SLOW TO ANGER AND OF GREAT KINDNESS. THE LORD IS GOOD TO ALL AND COMPASSIONATE TOWARD ALL HIS WORKS.

PSALM 46:2-3

Sometimes people might get mad at us and think they never want to be around us again. God, however, loves everyone forever! God will never stay mad at us. As long as we are truly sorry for our bad deeds and ask God to forgive us, he will!

LORD, HELP ME SAY THESE WORDS WHEN I NEED TO:
I AM SORRY.

From the book entitled "Living Faith Kids" by Imprimatur Bishop Mark S. Rivituso

CATHOLIC QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

Question: Why is it so important that we register in a parish? Isn't it good enough that we go to Mass?

Answer: Registration is the official way we join a parish community. Many people think that because they attend a particular parish they automatically belong. At times, young adults who have moved away for years think they are still signed up under their parents. But membership requires signing up, formally enrolling yourself in a parish. Registration is a commitment to a community, a way to be included in the religious, social, and ministerial activities of your parish.

Your registration affects the parish in many ways. Census numbers can determine how many priests are assigned to a church and how Masses, Confessions, and devotions are planned and scheduled.

Registration shows you belong. It is also necessary for certain benefits, like scheduling sacraments, obtaining sponsor certificates, and getting donation statements for taxes. Most importantly, it lets the parish count on you, to call on you to assist in its mission. Registering in your parish is a statement of faith and confidence in the life and work of your parish.

Take a few minutes to complete and/or update your registration online. Visit our website for instructions on how to fill out the registration forms in three easy steps — <http://www.st-anastasia.org/about-us/parish-registration/>. Please be sure to register each member of your family .
