FROM THE DESK OF FR. LESZEK SEMIK

Resurrection Greetings!

As we come to the beautiful time of year called “Easter” or, as some may refer to it, “Resurrection Sunday,” I want to remind you that the same power that raised Christ from the dead is available to us today.

The Bible tells us in Romans 8:11 “If the Spirit of the one who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, the one who raised Christ from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also, through his Spirit that dwells in you”. I believe this life given to us is not only eternal life, but it is also life for NOW! We are truly living in very challenging days as so many lust after power and use all means of force and manipulation to obtain it.

We have seen the evils of “wars and rumors of wars” happening today as untold thousands of people have been displaced from one country to another. While that is another kind of “power” that will one day be dealt with by a just Judge, there is little doubt this kind of power produces anything but disdain and hatred for the oppressor.

Jesus came that we might have a peaceful and joyful life and that it would be abundant life! Easter Sunday fills us with hope as the risen Lord comes to his disciples in spite of the barriers that are present. They have not only closed themselves behind locked doors, but they have closed their minds to the possibility that Jesus has arisen from the dead. Jesus patiently breaks through and comes into their midst. “Peace be with you!”

This same Jesus breaks through all the barriers that we put up against him, our fears, our doubts, our tendency to quit. He comes not to judge us but to fill us with new hope. Hope is one of the qualities that helps us to go on living in spite of troubles, failures, disasters, suffering, and death itself.

We hope that our troubles will end. We hope that we will get well soon. We hope that Jesus will help us establish peace on earth. We hope that tomorrow will bring a new day. Christian hope is based on the resurrection of Jesus from the dead, which is a guarantee that we too can look to the future with confidence.

Our hope is not in vain, God never fails. The same God who raised Jesus will help us arise from whatever is keeping us down because Jesus rose again, we too will rise!

On behalf of Msgr. Gregory Cox, Fr. Innocent Nzewuji, myself, and the entire staff here at St. Anastasia, I want to take this opportunity to wish you and your loved ones a hope-filled Happy Easter!

Rev. Leszek Semik

CATHOLIC QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

Question: What are the “fruits” of Holy Communion?

Answer: The Eucharist, like all sacraments, offers its own unique grace. We receive a special share in God’s life that helps us in our faith journey. We are given all we need to sustain and nurture our relationship with God. The Eucharist is the source and summit of the Christian life. Everything we are and everything we hope to become is found in this sacrament. It is essential to the life of the Church, to each member of the Church. Without it, there is no Church. The Eucharist is the center of our spiritual life and has enormous effects on our growth, our holiness, and our way of life.

The fruits of Holy Communion are the benefits one receives from the sacrament. These fruits of Holy Communion are discussed in the catechism in Article 3 on the Eucharist. The primary benefit is union with Christ. We become one with him sacramentally, just as we hope to become one with him for eternity. The Eucharist also separates us from sin, both past and future. It forgives the venial sins of the past and, by the love we receive, protects us from mortal sin in the future. The Church community is also unified and strengthened by the Eucharist. It unites us to the poor and offers the pledge of eternal life.

KIDS’ CORNER

...HE SAW AND BELIEVED.

JOHN 20:8

Imagine you’re with the disciples, on Easter morning. You’ve just heard from Mary of Magdala that someone has “taken the Lord from the tomb.” What?! Like Peter and John, you’d probably run to the tomb to see for yourself. But when you arrive, you see that all of Jesus’ burial cloths are still there. In fact, one cloth is rolled up neatly. This doesn’t look like someone has taken Jesus’ body. Something else has happened. Something amazing... could it be? Yes! Jesus has been raised to the new life. Best of all, he shares this new life with us! We believe! The Lord has risen! Alleluia! Alleluia!

PRAISE TO YOU, LORD JESUS CHRIST. RISEN IN GREAT GLORY!

From the book entitled “Living Faith Kids” by Imprimatur Bishop Mark S. Rivituso

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY - APRIL 24TH

The devotion to Jesus of the Divine Mercy has its origin in Poland in the 1930’s. Jesus chose a humble Polish nun, St. Maria Faustina Kowalska, to receive private revelations concerning Divine Mercy that were recorded in her diary. On May 5, 2000, at the direction of Saint John Paul II, the Vatican decreed that the Second Sunday of Easter would henceforth be known as Divine Mercy Sunday.

Next Sunday, April 24th at 3PM we invite you to join us in the Church for the Chaplet of Mercy prayers, which were passed on by Jesus in visions to St. Faustina. Bring your rosary, which will be used for reciting the prayers. We will also have benediction and some quiet time for adoration. Everyone is invited to attend.

Fr. Leszek encourages us all to encounter Jesus through the Divine Mercy devotion. St. Anastasia offers Adoration and Divine Mercy Chaplet every Wednesday at 5p. You can also spend some quiet prayer time by visiting our beautiful NEW Divine Mercy Chapel on the East side of the vestibule. Everyone is welcome to visit at any time.
