GOSPEL MEDITATION

Even Thomas struggles to remove his boulder! Being very pragmatic and determined, he wants to see the risen Christ for himself! Thomas's boulder is heavy with mistrust. Many of ours are too. A certain amount of skepticism is good, as it can save us from being duped or misled. But we can become so skeptical of things that it erodes our ability to trust anything we see or hear. Skepticism can actually be a well-disguised defense mechanism that we use to prevent us from being hurt or perceived as a fool. Having too much ego protection is a real risk. Thomas, because of the boulder blocking his vision, could not even trust the word of his friends.

Boulders are hard to move. It's difficult to seek change or take a risk, especially when we are so afraid to be vulnerable or reluctant to trust another's word. When we are closed minded, overly pragmatic, unwilling to see things in a different way, stubborn or defensive, it is difficult to be surprised by God and stretched. We need to be less guarded, self-assured, and self-absorbed. God cannot break into the ordinary moments of our lives and inspire us when we cling to doubt. If we are going to discover resurrection faith, we have to believe that what the witnesses say is true, especially when they are credible. We also have to trust that the risen Christ is alive in us, too!

While the first witnesses to the resurrection have faded into history, there are many others who have come after them. They continue to inspire by walking the talk of faith. They are the martyrs who offer their lives for the Gospel, the simple holy people in our communities who cling so steadfastly to their faith, those who have touched despair and found new hope and the ones who, even in spite of ridicule, still pursue their hunger and thirst for God. They are our friends, acquaintances, biblical heroes, and saints, and many others who are convinced that they have seen the Lord! The risen Christ may not surprise us with the same kind of visit as he did the first disciples, but God finds other ways. All we have to do is open our eyes, remove whatever is preventing us from seeing and believing and exclaim: "My Lord and my God!"

VISIT OUR DIVINE MERCY CHAPEL

The Divine Mercy Chapel on the East side of the vestibule was added to our church in May of 2021 to provide you with a quiet place to pray and spend time with Jesus. Let's contemplate Jesus' infinite Divine Mercy so that it may flow through us and pour out to all those we encounter.

Most importantly, that we may always 'Trust in Him.' Join us today Sunday, April 24th at 3PM in the Church for a Divine Mercy special service including the Chaplet of Mercy prayers.

Psalm – I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me (Psalm 30).

Gospel – Jesus appears to the disciples by the sea of Tiberias (John 21:1-19 [1-14]).

FAITH @ HOME

HEAR

Grab your Bible and look up the Gospel reading Gospel - John 20:19-31

PRAY

Take a moment of silence to reflect on the Gospel words.

- Place yourself in the Gospel passage and imagine Jesus breathing the Holy Spirit into you.
- What does that kind of Peace mean to you at this moment?
- What do you want to say to Jesus at this time?
- On this Divine Mercy Sunday, finish this time of prayer by reflecting on God's unending Mercy.

TALK

We can all relate to Thomas in our unbelief at times but Jesus reminds us "Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed." We need to be reminded to go to Jesus in our unbelief and let Him fill us with His presence and strengthen our belief. As a family, share a time when it was difficult for you to believe and how you found your way back to Jesus. Consider one of these activities to do as an individual or family:

- Visit the Blessed Sacrament at least once this Easter season and give your needs and concerns to Jesus.
- Pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet.

KIDS' CORNER

MARY OF MAGDALA WENT AND ANNOUNCED TO THE DISCIPLES, "I HAVE SEEN THE LORD..."

JOHN 20:18

When Jesus appeared to Mary of Magdala, she couldn't believe her eyes. She was seeing the impossible! She had watched Jesus die on the Cross. She had even helped lay him in the tomb. What did it feel like to see the risen Lord for the first time? We experience the risen Christ too. He is still alive among us. He is present every time love overcomes hatred, good overcomes evil and light overcomes darkness. These are all Easter moments. They give us a glimpse of the Lord, alive and with us. Because of them, we can say with Mary, "I have seen the Lord!"

RISEN LORD. OPEN MY EYES TO SEE YOU. ALIVE AND WITH US STILL!

From the book entitled "Living Faith Kids" by Imprimatur Bishop Mark S. Rivituso

The Sacrament is intended to address and support each other through our pain.
