6TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

[Jesus said to his disciples:] "The Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you." - Jn 14:26-27a

GOSPEL MEDITATION - DEEPER UNDERSTANDING

Jesus tells his disciples, "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give it to you." The peace that Jesus gives is far different than the kind that comes from the absence of war, conflict, or affliction. The peace that God offers is found alongside suffering and hardship, not necessarily in their absence. St. Teresa of Avila offers us a bit of wisdom regarding peace: "May today there be peace within. May you trust God that you are exactly where you are meant to be. May you not forget the infinite possibilities that are born of faith. May you use those gifts that you have received and pass on the love that has been given to you. May you be content knowing you are a child of God. Let this presence settle into your bones and allow your soul the freedom to sing, dance, praise, and love. It is there for each and every one of us."

In order for us to experience the divine peace that Jesus offers, we have to allow God's presence to settle into our bones! It is only when this happens that we can be truly taught by the Holy Spirit to discern the true path to peace and find ourselves with untroubled hearts. The world and our lives are so unpredictable and changeable. If we look for a source of lasting and real peace only there, our search will never be satisfied. Something will always unsettle and disturb us. The Jewish disciples could really relate to what Jesus was saying about peace (shalom). They already knew that it was more a matter of achieving wholeness and wellbeing than anything else.

Wholeness and wellbeing are precisely what is uncovered when we begin to really see and know the height, depth, and breadth of God's presence and promise. The elegance of God's Divine life flows through our blood and the marrow in our bones. It is that close and deep. As we breathe in and exhale God's life, peace becomes what we know within and what is exhaled out. This remains in the midst of intense conflict, persecution, suffering, rejection, and even death.

SECOND COLLECTION - MUSIC MINISTRY

Today's second collection is for the continued support of our Music Ministry. We are working towards enhancing the worship experience by heightening the Word of God with increased richness and variety of music at all our Masses and at the many community events we host throughout the year.

STEWARDSHIP WEEKEND

Offering back to God what He has given us is part of how we worship and give thanks to God. Stewardship helps us see the good we can accomplish by making God and our spiritual life essential values in our life. Today May 22nd, our Parish and Middle School students come together for a "Weekend of Stewardship." We will be collecting items for various organizations in Pastor's Plaza.

Care Packages for unhoused & low income families.

Collecting: hand wipes, sanitary napkins, granola bars, lip balm, socks, shampoo, deodorant.

St. Margaret's Center. Collecting: NEW underwear for adult homeless men who are offered weekly showers at St Margaret's Center. (various sizes)

Fundraising for Red Cross, assisting the people of Ukraine follow link for Go Fund Me for Ukraine: <https://gofund.me/f69f28f9>

AGES Book drive. Collecting: books for children of all ages to enjoy and learn the love of reading.

Local Animal Shelters. Collecting: New and used towels

Student will also be collecting various additional items for other organizations. Items needed include:

- school supplies and backpacks
- toiletry items (hotel/travel size)
- canned food items
- new & used toys

The truck from St. Vincent de Paul will be in the Parking Lot today Sunday, May 22nd, 8:30AM-1:30PM, collecting useable clothing, shoes, small appliances, household items, books, etc.

Thru May 31st our Respect Life ministry will be collecting diapers and baby care items to support local Pregnancy Help Centers. Please fill up the cribs in the vestibule and at the front of the Church.

FLOCKNOTE

Flocknote is a communication tool that we have been testing across various ministries, since the Fall. It allows us to more effectively communicate with you and your family through text or email. With Flocknote, you choose what information to receive regarding events happening at St. Anastasia. Receive the digital bulletin, ministry updates, and more! Join today by texting our keyword STACHURCH to 84576.

KIDS' CORNER

NO ONE HAS GREATER LOVE THAN THIS. TO LAY DOWN ONE'S LIFE FOR ONE'S FRIENDS.

JOHN 15:13

Love isn't just a feeling, and Jesus reminds us of that in the Gospel of John. Love is a choice and a series of actions. Sometimes laying down your life simply means giving up what you want so you can help someone else. What are some ways you can help someone else today? How can you show them love in the way Jesus wants? Think of three small, helpful actions you can take today. Then make it a point to do them.

GOD, GIVE ME THE COURAGE TO LOVE AS YOU LOVE

From the book entitled "Living Faith Kids" by Imprimatur Bishop Mark S. Rivituso

CONGRATS TO FIRST HOLY COMMUNICANTS!

What a special weekend for our 53 St. Anastasia Parish children who received their First Holy Communion this past Saturday. Congratulations and may you always turn to Jesus for love, hope and nourishment of your soul.

We are so grateful for the whole First Holy Communion team that prepared the children for this Sacrament and made their big day possible: our Director of Religious Education, Nivia Brito; our principal, Angelica Krestin; our second grade teacher, Ms. Lisa Scaltrito; our religious education catechists, Ms. Dianne McCanna, Ms. Monica Lange, Ms. Bertha Martin, Ms. Rocki Davidson, Ms. Maria de la Luz; our musicians, Kate Comstock and Ken Joseph Wlowinski, and those who helped with coordinating the liturgies and volunteering throughout the year. Thank you!

CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Question:

I can't explain it. I feel a nudge from God to do something out of the ordinary. How do I respond?

Answer:

You're in good company! Abraham was asked to leave all he knew and loved for a strange land, with only abstract divine assurance that such a sacrifice would be worth it. Plenty of prophets protested against God's call, whether it was claiming they were too young (Jeremiah) or running away entirely, only to end up in a whale's belly (Jonah). St. Joseph was asked to do something very strange. He was asked to believe — on the word of an angelic appearance in a dream — that his betrothed was pregnant not from another man, but by a miraculous intervention of God. Then he was called to marry her. Author Flannery O'Connor once wrote, "You shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you odd." Sometimes God's invitation might seem strange or challenging. It might require sacrifices we never expected to make. Our life might look different than we had always imagined. But as we all know, life throws its own curveballs, regardless of whether or not we're listening for God's will. Better, one would think, to be open to the promptings of God and to follow along the strange trails that they lead. We have the assurance that, eventually, we will find green pastures.

MEN'S CORNERSTONE RETREAT JUNE 10TH-11TH

The retreat is hosted by a team of Visitation and St. Anastasia men who, after experiencing it themselves, are passing along the gift of Cornerstone. It's simply a Gathering of Ordinary Men sharing their faith and life experiences. Some of these men will give a short talk in a casual atmosphere followed by thoughtful reflection and discussion. You may share as much or as little as you choose in these discussions. This short break from your daily routine allows you to reflect, renew, and strengthen your faith while meeting other men in our Christian community.

PAULINE CENTER FOR MEDIA

This unique retreat experience takes participants on a journey through cinema to reflect together on our common human experience and the gift of encountering people as and where they are, as Pope Francis reflects in his 2021 World Communications Day message. With the practice of cinema divina, lectio divina with film, we enter into the reality of how we communicate with one another and God in view of respectful encounters. All films are to be watched on your own prior to our Zoom meetings.

DID YOU KNOW?

May 21- 22 || Amusement park safety

Heading to a family amusement park this summer? Prepare your family with some easy safety tips. Amusement parks are crowded and exciting — and unfortunately, they can also be the perfect scenario for children to get distracted and separated from the family. Before you go, discuss the rules with your children: specify where they can go and who they can go with. Establish a buddy system and a family meet-up spot in case you get separated. For more tips, request a copy of the VIRTUS® article “Keeping Kids Safe at Amusement Parks” at lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.
