GOSPEL MEDITATION

And to another he said, "Follow me." In every moment of every day, in every circumstance and experience, God is calling us. We can easily get distracted and not hear it or simply ignore it, pretending it wasn't even heard. When we do hear it and favorably respond, there are some conditions that must be met. Jesus makes it clear that once we say yes to his invitation, we must stay focused and forge ahead. We cannot keep looking behind or worry about unfinished business. There are some tasks, and discipleship is one, that require our full devotion.

There are many "masters" vying for our attention. We need something or someone to give us direction. Human nature requires it. Our motives and actions reveal what has our allegiance. It is tempting to give ourselves to masters that lure us with intriguing promises. When given the choice between a "master" that promises worldly success, abundant wealth, status, privilege, and security versus a "master" that asks for self-sacrifice, hardship, suffering, ridicule, and death, to whom do we go? While the promise of immediate pleasure is enticing, there is always a catch. For all that secular masters can promise, they always keep us looking behind, checking on ourselves, second guessing choices, calculating options, and being slaves to excessive worry. Our guard can never come down. Only one master really promises life: Jesus Christ. Hearing his call, we either trust him or we don't.

Saying yes to following Christ does come with a risk. But it also comes with the brightness of future hopes and dreams. There is no need to keep looking behind. Sins are forgiven and regrets serve no effective purpose. God is not there. He's moved beyond all that stuff. God is in the today and the tomorrow and what he can continually do with our daily affirmation to follow Him. All we need to do is be obedient. St. Gianna Molla is credited with saying, "The stillness of prayer is the most essential condition for fruitful action. Before all else, the disciple kneels down." Begin with prayer. We will not only hear God's call but find the courage to trust that He will guide us where we need to be. God uses us in the most ordinary of ways through the simple daily expression of our lives.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

God calls us in the midst of ordinary things. Often only looking for God in the dramatic, spectacular, the ritual or the sacred places, we miss that He is walking beside us. Every moment of every day, in every circumstance and experience, God is calling to us, "Follow me." Sometimes, we are too distracted to hear this call. Other times, we would rather ignore it or pretend it wasn't heard. God, however, is very persistent. Whether we fine tune our hearing to receive this invitation now or when we close our eyes in death, we need to make a choice. The choice involves leaving some things behind and moving forward, taking risks. Choosing to keep focused and single-minded, the lens we then use to see our world and one another is God's, not our own. Life is no longer about what is important or matters to me but what matters to God. We acquire a new filter and are asked to use that filter to make choices, establish priorities, and determine what direction we will take, and how to love. Once we accept God's invitation, we cannot keep looking back to what was left behind, only forward to the surprises yet to come.

Kids Corner

READ THE GOSPEL & COLOR

Today you say, "Jesus, I'll go anywhere with you!" When you agree to go with Jesus, he takes care of you. On your travels, God's people will be like your family. You will speak their language. They will welcome you into their homes. They will give you food and drink. They will give you shelter and a place to sleep. They will care for you when you are sick. God provides for all who follow him.

PRAYER

Lord, help me come with you right away.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

I will read from the Bible and pray for all who follow Jesus.

PARISH LIFE & SCHOOL

THANK YOU & FAREWELL FR. INNOCENT

We have all come to appreciate and love Fr. Innocent in the short time he served as Associate Pastor at St. Anastasia. He has won over the hearts of this community with his infectious laugh, openness for deep spiritual conversations, and zeal for God as he clamors, "God is good all the time. All the time, God is good!" We love that you bring that same enthusiasm to every aspect of ordinary life, from challenging Fred on the volleyball court to running like the wind in the Jog-A-Thon alongside our students. His work at St. Anastasia Parish is complete for now and has been called to continue his ministry at Sacred Heart Parish in Lancaster, Ca. starting on July 1st.

St. Anastasia is so grateful to you for the countless Eucharistic and Sacramental celebrations, Holy Hours, chaplets, and many more prayers and blessings you bestowed on us. You taught us the importance of being in the "State of Grace" as we receive the Eucharist and how we as people need to always present ourselves humbly to God. We thank you for enabling us to grow more in our relationship with the Lord and experience his relentless love.

Fr. Innocent is indeed a great holy man who loves sharing the Gospel of the Good News. We understand you already have a full schedule at your new parish. Luckily, you won't be too far, so we look forward to having you back soon for a celebration sometime this Summer! Everyone in the community is invited and will be able to send you off with well-wishes and God's blessing. Details on Fr. Innocent's farewell celebration will be shared upon Fr. Leszek's return from his trip to Poland.

Joyfully in Christ,
Fr. Leszek, Msgr. Cox, Parish and School Staff

BOUCH SPORTS @ ST. A'S

Bouch Sports Camp will be offered at St. Anastasia School campus during the month of July for grades 1-8. The multi-sports camp led by one of our parishioners is open to our whole community and will provide a safe and fun environment for children to focus on physical health, while developing coordination through drills, games and activities. Camp will be structured as follows: lunch time (lunch not included), general fitness, speed and agility drills, sports, free play and other fun activities.

DID YOU KNOW?

June 25-26 || Check for substance abuse in caregivers

Choosing a babysitter for your children is hard, and the prevalence of substance use, and abuse makes it even harder. When parents are screening potential babysitters, it is important to check for any warning signs of drug or alcohol use. You may want to seek out references or ask for a background check or licenses. For more tips on choosing the right babysitter, read the VIRTUS® article "Is Your Babysitter or Caregiver Safe?" at lacatholics.org/did-you-know/

WHAT IS OUR SPIRITUAL PATH? WALKING THE TRAIL THROUGH COVID

SPONSORED BY THE SEPARATED, DIVORCED AND WIDOWED MINISTRY
OFFICE OF MARRIAGE AND FAMILY LIFE
ARCHDIOCESE OF LOS ANGELES

Each of us has our own faith journey with unique experiences, but by now, COVID has become a part of everyone's faith walk. For some, this time has been a very hard trek; for others, an inconvenient detour; and for others, it has been a life-giving Camino. Let's take a moment to pause with God along our spiritual path. We'll reflect on what we've already trekked through with COVID, accept the gifts of where we are on the path right now, and prepare ourselves to be open to the surprises God has waiting for us on the trail ahead!
