GOSPEL MEDITATION

We can learn a great deal from Mister Rogers. Remember him? He was the gentle soul who found his way into living rooms worldwide starting as far back as 1968. Mister Rogers' Neighborhood was a beloved program that celebrated and exalted people, especially children. He taught us that we are neighbors and that everyone has a place. Everyone matters. He had a vision, born of his relationship with God that highlighted every human life's innocence, beauty, and uniqueness. To that end, he called us to be responsible for each other, saying nothing different than what Jesus said. Viewers quickly learned that life is not just about me.

"We live in a world in which we need to share responsibility. It's easy to say, 'It's not my child, not my community, not my world, not my problem.'

Then there are those who see the need and respond. I consider those people my heroes (Fred Rogers)." It is so easy to look the other way. After all, I'm not the one who needs to leave home out of fear and try to find somewhere safe. I am not the one who is hungry and without shelter or food. I am not the one who has a child being bullied or ridiculed because of the way they dress or act. I am not the one being threatened with violence or unable to find meaningful work. The distress and agony of our neighbors are our distress and agony. We cannot walk by it with an attitude of indifference, especially if we call ourselves believers. When we no longer care, we have suffocated our souls. This is a great sin.

God's law "is something very near to you, already in your mouths and in your hearts; you have only to carry it out." We all have a need for love and acceptance. That's why Mister Rogers' television show was so popular. It spoke to something deeper, something sacred about humanity. God didn't give us his law in a book. He wrote it on our hearts. We know what we need to do. It's a matter of choice. Love is sacred. When we love another human being, especially without regard for ourselves, it is a holy moment. These moments are often missed due to our self-serving agendas and rules.

ST. KATERI TEKAKWITHA

On July 14th, we celebrate the feast of the "Lily of the Mohawks." St. Kateri Tekakwitha is the first Native American woman to be canonized. Orphaned by a smallpox outbreak, Kateri survived with severe scarring and impaired eyesight. Despite tragedy, she was a devout girl at a young age, often building crosses from sticks in the woods. When she was 18, she began secret instruction in the Catholic faith with French missionaries. Her commitment to Christianity and vow of virginity was misunderstood and ridiculed by her fellow villagers. She escaped to a nearby mission, where she attended daily Mass, taught the children, and cared for the sick and the elderly. Sometimes the greatest misunderstandings can come from those closest to us. Like St. Kateri, God invites us to be faithful to our commitments of faith and to always respond in love.

KIDS' CORNER

THOROUGHLY WASH ME FROM MY GUILT AND OF MY SIN CLEANSE ME.

PSALM 51:4

A shower feels so refreshing after you've been playing outside in the July heat! Going to Confession is a little like taking a shower for your soul. It's easy to get so caught up in things we want to do that the things God wants can get lost in the shuffle. Jesus gave us the Sacrament of Reconciliation so we can reflect on our actions, ask the Father's forgiveness for our sins and know the peace that comes with God's mercy.

FATHER, I'M SORRY FOR MY SINS. PLEASE FORGIVE ME AND REFRESH ME WITH YOUR GRACE.

From the book entitled "Living Faith Kids" by Imprimatur Bishop Mark S. Rivituso

St. Anastasia's doors are always open to welcome all. Perhaps you are visiting parents or grandparents who invited you to Mass today. Maybe you haven't been to Church in a while. We get it. We've been there, but know that God is always calling and ready to welcome you home, just as you are.

We offer a special welcome to those who could use a prayer right now. God loves you and wants to be part of your life. The St. Anastasia community is here to pray with you through any hardship and provide a source of spiritual strength through the Gospel and Eucharist, always!

DID YOU KNOW?

July 9-10 || Check your smoke alarms

The National Fire Protection Association (NFPA) recommends that smoke alarms be installed on every level of the home, inside every bedroom, and outside every sleeping area. Keep alarms away from drafts caused by fans or air ducts, as this could blow smoke away from the sensor. The NFPA also recommends that you test your alarms at least once a month, and replace the batteries every six months, or as soon as a low battery chirp is heard. For more information about smoke alarm safety, visit nfpa.org.

SPONSORED BY THE SEPARATED, DIVORCED AND WIDOWED MINISTRY
OFFICE OF MARRIAGE AND FAMILY LIFE
ARCHDIOCESE OF LOS ANGELES

Each of us has our own faith journey with unique experiences, but by now, COVID has become a part of everyone's faith walk. For some, this time has been a very hard trek; for others, an inconvenient detour; and for others, it has been a life-giving Camino. Let's take a moment to pause with God along our spiritual path. We'll reflect on what we've already trekked through with COVID, accept the gifts of where we are on the path right now, and prepare ourselves to be open to the surprises God has waiting for us on the trail ahead!
