GOSPEL MEDITATION

"If they will not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded if someone should rise from the dead." Regardless of how the message of faith is received, a total conversion of mind and heart is needed for it to take root and have meaning. It is easy to become complacent and comfortable with all that life can afford us. Life can become "all about me," preserving my livelihood and protecting my securities. Often, this drive can become so strong that we eagerly strive to protect our self-interests at the expense of others. Other people are necessary only to the extent that they are "useful" to us and profitable.

Merriam-Webster defines entitlement as "the belief that one is deserving of or entitled to certain privileges." In a world that pretends to offer us so many necessities, this is perhaps the greatest contemporary sin. When we feel "entitled" to something, even if it is perceived necessary, our relationships can get skewed. Unless we adopt a global vision of entitlement wherein everyone is entitled to the same things, we risk becoming extremely self-focused and selfish. All we care about is defending our rights and protecting our turf. This impulse can be so strong that we pursue it even at the expense of another. Is this what God intends for his children?

Holding on to this myopic vision, the plight and station of others are off our radar and of no real concern to us. Relying on our own merits and becoming resilient to life's challenges, we replace the true and real God with the one we created ourselves. Jesus and the prophets before him have consistently reminded us of the dangers of wealth, ignoring the poor and the needy, and becoming too fiercely independent and arrogant. Yet, we conduct our lives as if that message has never been preached. We give our faith a nod and never consider for a moment that we may be wrong in terms of what we see as important. "The things that we love tell us what we are (attributed to St. Thomas Aquinas)." Ponder those words a bit and remember that when we leave this world and go to the next one, what we loved here is what we will look for there. What we sought here may not be there.

INTRODUCING ST. ANASTASIA'S MINISTRY OF CONSOLATION

The death of a loved one can be a highly stressful and emotionally devastating experience. After the death of someone close, waves of emotion, including sadness, anger, helplessness, loneliness, and even shock can make day-to-day tasks feel overwhelming. St. Anastasia now offers a new ministry to support families coping with the loss of a loved one.

The Ministry of Consolation mission is to provide essential grief support and assistance to families on their journey toward hope and healing, after the death of a loved one. The ministry's labor of love continues beyond the funeral and burial services through home visits, phone calls, cards, and prayers. All losses are equally difficult to deal with; we are open to all that need a friendly hand, a loving ear, a big hug!!

With the purpose of expanding our services, we are currently recruiting volunteers to become part of this very special ministry. Your involvement may be as simple as spending an afternoon researching flower arrangements and preparing funeral invitations, or as special as visiting a grieving family. Our goal is to provide comfort and support in an intimate atmosphere.

Thanks to our recent Ministry Fair, we had the opportunity to extend this invitation to a broader part of our community. However, sometimes we feel intimidated by the uncertainty of "what if, or what would my involvement require of me, or am I ready for something like this?" To answer all these questions and to have a better idea of what this Ministry has to offer our community, we will offer a very informative meeting in November. We welcome all contributions and understand that your level of comfort may dictate how you choose to support those who are grieving. All Consolation Ministry-related information will be available through the bulletin. However, for information and questions, please consider writing an email directly to Aleida Rodriguez at MinistryofConsolation@st-anastasia.org.

KIDS' CORNER

NO ONE WHO LIGHTS A LAMP CONCEALS IT ... RATHER, HE PLACES IT ON A LAMPSTAND SO THAT THOSE WHO ENTER MAY SEE THE LIGHT

LUKE 8:16

Jesus is the light of the world for all people.

In the Gospel, Jesus tells us that his words are not just for his listeners, but for everyone, in all times and places. So, we are called in our own time to share the Good News of Jesus Christ, just as his followers did. You shine the light of Jesus by your words and actions. What can you do today to shine this light brightly for others?

LORD, FILL ME WITH YOUR LIGHT SO I CAN SHARE IT WITH OTHERS

St. Anastasia Church 2022-2023 Bible Study

The world today looks confused, hostile, threatening, overwhelming. We are engulfed by the 'culture war' everywhere we go. The spiritual crises here today, and those likely to come, will challenge us and those we love to practice 'heroic virtue'. How do we identify the dangers and become resilient enough to resist the waves?

Walking in Wisdom – Living in Virtue

-  Holy Scripture generously supplies the armor of wisdom and the weapon of virtue that men and women will need to prevail in the continuing war for their souls.
-  Our study draws on the abundant wisdom of the Bible, and features the Knights of Columbus video series, Into the Breach, and Ascension Press' Wisdom: God's Vision for Life.
-  Walk with us to explore these divinely-inspired spiritual insights and effective practices by which you and your loved ones can live a fully Christian life – secure in the revealed truth of Jesus Christ.

Our 22-week study begins October 25 and runs through May 2023. Sign up now at the Parish Office or online at: www.osvhub.com/st-anastasia/giving/funds (Scroll down to Bible Study.)

BEYOND OUR PARISH

DID YOU KNOW? September 24-25

Parents helping parents

Some parents seem to struggle with, or just do not understand the importance of being on time for school or for pick-up at the end of a team practice. Children and other parents notice persistent tardiness and concerns about possible neglect may arise. In today's climate, a well-meaning parent who steps in to assist with offers to drop-off or pick-up another child may, even under the best of circumstances, become suspect for showing "too much" interest in a child who is not theirs. It is important to find ways to engage parents on such important responsibilities early on. One way to start the process is by inviting them to come together to talk about issues and to brainstorm policies and solutions. For more information, read the VIRTUS® article "Parents who don't quite 'get it,'" at lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.
