27th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith." The Lord replied, "If you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you would say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it would obey you."

- Lk 17:5-6

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

As adults, unless we are dealing with children, "obedience" is not a word we typically like to hear. It often brings connotations of military protocols, deference to superiors at work, or conforming to laws and practices. In a culture that has learned to challenge authority, being obedient is understood more as something I "have" to do, not "want" to do. Do you ever see merit in wanting to be obedient? Encouraged to develop independent, self-sufficient egos and personas, we learn to focus on our own wills and merits as we strive for success and achieve a sense of well-being. Giving ourselves over to the will of another, especially when done blindly, can sometimes carry more risk than we are willing to take. Also, blindly following orders without any deference to ethics or morality can lead to atrocious crimes and violence against humanity.

St. Ignatius of Loyola states, "There are three sorts of obedience; the first, obedience when a strict obligation is imposed upon us, and this is good; the second when the simple word of the superior, without any strict command, suffices for us, and this is better; the third, when a thing is done without waiting for an express command, from a knowledge that it will be pleasing to the superior, and this is the best of all." St. Ignatius sees obedience as an act of love. When the person we are obeying genuinely has our best interest in mind, acting themselves with love and integrity, then what St. Ignatius says makes excellent sense. When mutual trust and a bond of love and respect are present, obedience can lead to freedom and truth.

We ask God to increase our faith. In other words, increase our trust that God knows best how to live and act in this world. We desire the same confidence, determination, and patience Jesus had that the fulfillment of God's vision would one day come. Nurturing a deep love of God and trusting in his providence, we obediently do what we know is pleasing to God: love, repent of sin, show mercy, be compassionate and fight injustice. As we willingly give witness to our faith, we do only what we are obliged to do, expecting nothing in return. Spared from the task of having to figure it all out for ourselves, we discover freedom.

STEPHEN MINISTRY

STEPHEN MINISTRY

Have you ever considered the fact that our pastoral team could use support? Support comes in many forms: an invitation to dinner, an encouraging word, a kind email about a particularly impactful homily, or a donation of your time to propel the church's effort are just a few examples.

Our pastoral team, led by Fr. Leszek, understands there is an ongoing and increasing need for quality, Christ centered support. As such, we are building a new Ministry to help ensure those who are suffering can receive spiritual and emotional support. This new outreach is a proven program called Stephen Ministry.

Stephen Ministry supports our pastoral team by deepening, expanding, and extending the caring capacity of our church. A team of well trained, Stephen Ministers provides one-on-one ongoing care for more people than the Priest can provide alone.

An effective Stephen Minister is encouraging, compassionate, kind and full of faith. If you are blessed with these gifts and want more fulfillment in your life, this could be the perfect opportunity for you! Reach out to stascare@gmail.com or visit the church website MINISTRIES tab to learn more. We are currently in the process of building a team who would like to train as Stephen Ministers and provide support. Training consists of a 20 week program beginning in January. Is God calling you to service?

KIDS' CORNER

O LORD, YOU HAVE PROBED ME AND YOU KNOW ME.

PSALM 139:1

Who knows you best?

Your closest friend? A sibling? A parent? Lots of people know different parts of our personalities, but only one person knows us inside and out:

God. Read Psalm 139 slowly. Really think about what it's saying. God knows you. God loves you, more than anyone else ever will. He is with you. No matter what you do or say or where you go, he will be there. Always. How comforting, How amazing. How wonderful to know that the God who made the universe loves you. You matter to him. A lot.

BEYOND OUR PARISH

DID YOU KNOW? OCTOBER 1-2

Talk to your children about safety in bathrooms and cafeterias

At school, bathrooms and cafeterias tend to have informal social rules that differ from those in the classroom. That is why parents should talk to their children about what to do in these settings, especially if bullying or some kind of abusive behavior is happening. Talk about what to do when a classmate says another student is not welcome to join a group at the lunch table, or what to do if another student engages in coercive behavior that puts someone else at risk. For more tips, request a copy of the VIRTUS® article "Three Things That Simply Must Be Done" at lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.
