GOSPEL MEDITATION

Ten lepers were cured. Only one returned to give thanks. When we fall victim to entitlement, we diminish our capacity to love. Never satisfied, we walk around with outstretched arms, eagerly searching for the next thing we want so that we can acquire it ourselves. Very rarely do entitled hands hold anything to freely give away to others. Entitled hands also find it challenging to reach toward heaven in a gesture of gratitude and praise. We are often more obsessed with celebrating our victories, securing our assets, safeguarding our futures, and stacking the deck of life in our favor rather than relishing and absorbing the gift of the moment and blessings received.

Entitled people find it difficult to pray properly. When the subject of our prayer is mostly about our needs and wants, we are falling into the trap of deception. We foolishly try to convince God that our tiny worlds are of greater importance than His. In ancient times, people would offer sacrifices to “the gods” to secure protection and favors. Our God desires mercy, not sacrifice, because He is about love and justice, not simply meeting our agendas. Every breath is a gift. Prayer, which is a celebration of that gift, acknowledges the Giver. Prayer strengthens the bond between Giver and receiver, creating a deepening awareness that nothing I am or anything I have can exist apart from His Divine Will. It also reminds us that we have done nothing to merit the unconditional love and mercy God showers upon us. Prayer is not just about getting what I need but celebrating who I am.

For St. Therese of Lisieux prayer is “a surge of the heart; it is a simple look turned toward heaven, it is a cry of recognition and of love, embracing both trial and joy.” When our hearts “surge” toward God, we rush to the Source of our restoration and wholeness, knowing our longing for God’s Divine embrace. Prayer is a response to God’s graciousness with an act of gratitude returned by us. In prayer, we gaze upon each other in that sacred space where I give myself to God as He is, and God gives Himself to me as I am. We cannot take another step without saying thank you.

INTRODUCING ST. ANASTASIA’S MINISTRY OF CONSOLATION

The death of a loved one can be a highly stressful and emotionally devastating experience. After the death of someone close, waves of emotion, including sadness, anger, helplessness, loneliness, and even shock can make day-to-day tasks feel overwhelming. St. Anastasia now offers a new ministry to support families coping with the loss of a loved one.

The Ministry of Consolation’s mission is to provide essential grief support and assistance to families on their journey toward hope and healing, after the death of a loved one. The ministry’s labor of love continues beyond the funeral and burial services through home visits, phone calls, cards, and prayers. All losses are equally difficult to deal with; we are open to all that need a friendly hand, a listening ear, a big hug!!

With the purpose of expanding our services, we are currently recruiting volunteers to become part of this very special ministry. Your involvement may be as simple as spending an afternoon researching flower arrangements and preparing funeral invitations, or as special as visiting a grieving family. Our goal is to provide comfort and support in an intimate atmosphere.

Thanks to our recent Ministry Fair, we had the opportunity to extend this invitation to a broader part of our community. However, sometimes we feel intimidated by the uncertainty of “what if, or what would my involvement require of me, or am I ready for something like this?” To answer all these questions and to have a better idea of what this Ministry has to offer our community, we will offer a very informative meeting on November 9th from 6pm-7:30pm. We welcome all contributions and understand that your level of comfort may dictate how you choose to support those who are grieving. All Consolation Ministry-related information will be available through the bulletin. However, for information and questions, please consider writing an email directly to Aleida Rodriguez at MinistryofConsolation@st-anastasia.org.

AND I TELL YOU, ASK AND YOU WILL RECEIVE.

LUKE 11:9

Do the people who take care of you give you everything you ask for?

If they love you, they didn't! You might ask for candy and get an apple instead. That's because what we want isn't always what is good for us. God loves us too. When we ask him for something, he gives. That doesn't mean he gives us what we ask for! But God will always give us himself. God is always with us. He loves us no matter what.

GOD, HELP ME REMEMBER YOU ARE WITH ME EVERY DAY.

OFFICE OF LIFE, JUSTICE & PEACE

VOTE "NO" ON PROPOSITION 1

Proposition 1 is a worst-case scenario for abortion in California. It is an expensive and misleading ballot measure that allows unlimited late-term abortions — for any reason, at any time, even moments before birth, paid for by tax dollars.

Prop 1 isn't needed. Sadly, California already has some of the most permissive abortion laws in the nation that would remain in effect without the amendment, including our current limit on late-term abortions that are permitted only for the life and health of the mother. Prop 1 destroys this common-sense limit.

California does not limit state spending on abortion, and with thousands more traveling from other states, the cost will be in the hundreds of millions. Don't hand lawmakers a blank check to pay for abortions, and don't let them make California an "abortion sanctuary."

BEYOND OUR PARISH

DID YOU KNOW? OCTOBER 8-9

What happens when children are exposed to violence?

Children who are exposed to violent or traumatic events can have a range of reactions. Many children will become afraid, preferring to stay at home or close to their parents. They also may begin to struggle in school, or have trouble sleeping or eating. Other children may learn to resolve their own conflicts in violent ways. Parents should be mindful about the ways in which children may be exposed to violence, including in the media and online apps their children consume and even in their own homes. For more information, read "Childhood Exposure to Violence" at <https://www.healthychildren.org/English/safety-prevention/at-home/Pages/Crime-Violence-and-Your-Child.aspx>.
