GOSPEL MEDITATION

Many make it their life's ambition to determine precisely when the world will end. By reading the signs of the times, consulting scripture, or looking to prophetic predictions that are sometimes centuries old, they claim a certain credibility in being able to do so. Is all that necessary to know? Even when his disciples pointedly ask him this question, Jesus does not directly answer. While the end will inevitably come, Jesus points out that there is a lot we need to do first: remain faithful, face persecution, endure suffering, face wars and insurrections, and give testimony. Human beings tend to focus their energies on the wrong kingdom. Consumed with all of the things we have built and seeking to preserve them, we forget that we belong to a different kingdom, the Kingdom of God.

All of the "stuff" we have constructed will be taken away. All that will remain is God's kingdom. Which kingdom do we prefer? We answer that question by honestly looking at where we invest most of our time and energy. What matters to us as we embrace a new moment or day in our lives? If our relationship with God, the strength and integrity of our souls, and the steadfastness of our character are of utmost importance, then it matters little when the physical end will come. We will have what we need to persevere, endure, and confront whatever comes our way. Jesus cautions that we do not allow ourselves to be overwhelmed or overly terrified by the agonies and disappointments of the world. Although we may be apprehensive and uncertain when faced with complex challenges, God is with us. We will receive the inspiration we need to forge ahead.

God is a God of salvation and new beginnings. Whether we consider the daily unfolding of our earthly lives or our eternal ones to come, God never leaves us with dead ends. There is always hope, and there is always something new to come. As Julian of Norwich reminds us, "God made us, God loves us and God keeps us." This wisdom holds true whether life is stable and profitable or challenging and uncertain. If we remember this simple truth, we will be ready regardless of the day or the hour.

The southside doors will remain only as emergency exits.

CONFIRMATION CANDIDATES PRAYER

Our Confirmands are preparing to go on retreat this weekend. We ask all our parishioners to keep the youth of it's Church in prayer.

God of all ages, You send out your Spirit to touch the hearts of all people, Look kindly on our candidates for Confirmation as they seek to hear your voice. As they embark on their retreat weekend, we pray that you send your Spirit to enlighten, guide, strengthen, console, and open their hearts as they continue to seek a closer relationship with you.

KIDS' CORNER

HE IS LIKE A TREE PLANTED NEAR RUNNING WATER ....

PSALM :31

If you were a tree, where would you rather be planted - beside a nice little stream with plenty of water to seep into your roots? Or out in the dry desert somewhere? That's a no-brainer, isn't it? In just the same way we need to "plant" ourselves close to God. By praying and going to Mass, we place ourselves where we need to be. We can grow stronger because God is so close to us.

GOD, BE THE LIVING WATER I NEED TO GROW IN MY FAITH.

From the book entitled "Living Faith Kids" by Imprimatur Bishop Mark S. Rivotuso

THINKING ABOUT BECOMING CATHOLIC?

The RCIA rite is being updated and the name is changed from RCIA to OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults).

The main purpose of the Rite is to assist inquirers in their journey to learn about the Catholic faith. It's also an opportunity to complete your sacraments now as an Adult and it is the process through which a person is fully incorporated in the Body of Christ, the Church.

OCIA sessions are back at St. Anastasia. Led by Jonette and Vincent Mauch, these meetings take place in the Parish Office conference room each Wednesday from 7:30PM-9PM. Email: ddupree@st-anastasia.org for more information and to register.

OCIA is not for adult candidates for Confirmation who have already received their First Eucharist in the Catholic Church. The LA Archdiocese will share with us a regional program for those in need of the Sacrament of Confirmation. More information to come in Dec. If you are a fully initiated Catholic looking to volunteer, please don't hesitate to reach out as well.

“Holy Moments solve the meaninglessness of our lives.”

Matthew Kelly is a best-selling author, speaker, thought leader, entrepreneur, consultant, spiritual leader, and innovator. His recent book Holy Moments is now available to all parishioners thanks to the prayerful contemplation and generosity of a fellow parishioner who donated over 300 copies for all to enjoy. Please be sure to stop by our Parish Office to pick up one copy per family while books last.

Fly safely this holiday season

If you are traveling to visit family or friends this Thanksgiving, these tips from the American Academy of Pediatrics can help you prepare for smooth and safe flights. Allow your family extra time to get through airport security. Talk to your children about the screening process ahead of time so they know what to expect and what to do. If for some reason you, or your children, are selected for further screening for some reason, stand close by so you can see one another during the process.
