GOSPEL MEDITATION

It's not unreasonable to think that if God wanted to make a statement he could do so in a very dramatic way. After all, he spoke through a burning bush that didn't actually burn, parted the Red Sea, sent manna to the Israelites from the sky, cured lepers, healed the sick and cast out demons. All of that is pretty dramatic stuff, and they made statements! Now, Jesus hangs dying on a cross. He has been referred to as a king. Considering all of the miracles Jesus did in his short time on earth, isn't one more in order? If Jesus came down off of the cross, defied death, and parted the waters of suffering and death, onlookers, believers and unbelievers alike, would take notice. It would prove who God is and show us what God wants us to do. Or would it?

Great spiritual masters remind us not to focus on miracles or consolations received from God. They can distract us. Doing anything other than what Jesus did would distract humanity as well, misplacing our focus. It's not about a miracle, at least not the dramatic kind people are eager to see. It's about something more profound. It all goes back to where it began for the earthly Jesus. God becomes one with humanity in Jesus Christ. All that goes into being human is holy and blessed, and that becomes a place where God is born, again and again. God, through Jesus, tells us to hold firm to all of the experiences of being human, the joys and the wonders, the disappointments and the failures.

God's lesson is found in Jesus' vulnerability. It is only when we are vulnerable that we learn how to love. When Jesus breathed his last, God's unconditional and tender love was realized. Jesus always had a soft spot for the weak, lost, vulnerable, and broken. God wants us to come to Him freely, not because we have witnessed some fantastic display of prowess. God desires that we find Him through who we are, as our hearts and souls direct. This will mean that our love is authentic as it will be born of the heartache, pain, and turmoil that are a part of life. The fragments of our lives need to be made whole. Our fragmented king, Jesus Christ, is the only one who can help put the pieces together.

CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT

"For over 38 million Americans, there is a thin line: between eviction and home, between hunger and health, between unemployment and work, between anxiety and stability. This line is the Poverty Line.

For a family of four, that line is $25,750 a year*. The Catholic Campaign for Human Development is dedicated to breaking the cycle of poverty by funding community programs that encourage independence. You are essential to its success. Your generous donations will give those in poverty the support they need to make lasting changes. Together, we can make a difference in families and communities across the United States. Please donate prayerfully and generously in today's second collection. Thank you.

FAITH FORMATION

ST. ANASTASIA CONFIRMATION PROGRAM

Our Y2 Confirmands enjoyed a prayerful encounter with Jesus and a fun-filled three days in Long Beach at this year's National Catholic Youth Conference (NCYC) — the largest Catholic youth event in the United States. With the help of the LA Archdiocese, Dan Murphy Foundation, Shea Foundation, and our parish support and volunteers, we were able to take 32 High School teens to represent St. Anastasia Catholic Church among 400+ Los Angeles youth, 10 Bishops, 90 Priests and Deacons, and over 2,000 total attendees. Fr. Augustino Torres and Chika Anyanwu -our Emcees- led us through praise and worship, personal testimonies, adoration, and shared a recorded message from Pope Francis. We celebrated Mass with Archbishop José Gomez and participated in many of the breakout sessions with leading Catholic speakers. The weekend was indeed a once-in-a-lifetime experience that our Youth Ministry Core team was blessed to help organize. Look out for an upcoming Angelus News article for an interview with one of our parish teens. Experiences like NCYC, help our youth connect with our faith in a more profound and meaningful way.

HOLY MOMENTS

Holy Moments give meaning and divine purpose to our lives.

“Some moments are holy, some moments are unholy, and our choices can guide a moment in either direction.”

“Holy Moments solve the meaninglessness of our lives.”

Matthew Kelly is a best-selling author, speaker, thought leader, entrepreneur, consultant, spiritual leader, and innovator. His recent book, Holy Moments is now available to all parishioners, thanks to the prayerful contemplation and generosity of a fellow parishioner who donated 325 copies for all to enjoy. Please be sure to stop by our Parish Office to pick up one copy per family while books last.

DID YOU KNOW? NOVEMBER 19-20

Protect against colds and flu this winter

Children are especially susceptible to colds and flu, partly because they are exposed to more germs at school or daycare, or from picking up random objects and less frequent hand washing. You can protect your child against germs by taking preventative actions. Encourage (and model) regular hand washing and good hygiene, such as sneezing or coughing into your elbow. Monitor family members for signs of illness and if sick, stay home. For more information, visit cdc.gov/flu.
