GOSPEL MEDITATION

Summer has dwindled, and once again, we approach that grand celebration of the birth of our Savior. During this time of year as I see the malls and stores filled to capacity with people rushing to get the latest and greatest deal, my mind always begins to wonder if people realize what this special season is all about!

I see people with arms full of gifts. People who may never walk through the doors of a church at any time during the year, but still knowingly or unknowingly celebrate the birth of our Lord and Savior. I personally can't imagine Christmas without Christ. Honestly, I believe Christmas without Christ would be a "mess." And I can't imagine celebrating Christmas without proper spiritual preparation.

Advent, which we start today, is a time of waiting for Christ. Besides his first coming at his birth, Jesus comes to us through the Sacraments, in the Word of God, at the moment of our death, and finally, in his second coming to judge the world.

We must prepare ourselves for Christ's coming by allowing him to be reborn daily in our hearts during the season of Advent and every day of our lives, in our love, kindness, mercy, and forgiveness. Advent is the time for us to make this preparation by repenting for our sins, renewing our lives through prayer, and sharing our blessings with others. Advent also provides an opportunity for us to check for what needs to be made right in our lives. Let us ask ourselves how we have failed and assess the ways in which we can do better. Only then will we be able to give people His hope by caring for those in need. We will provide them with God's peace by turning the other cheek when we are provoked. We will give them His love by encouraging those who are feeling sad or tired and give them His joy by encouraging and helping those who feel they have run out of strength. Through our actions, we show those around us that we care with God's immense love and care for us.

When we do acts of kindness this season, with His grace, we will receive hope, peace, love, and joy in return. Through intentional preparation, we will know that we will be ready for Him- when the King, our Lord Jesus, returns on the clouds of glory. Please join us every Sunday this Advent season as we worship our Lord.

Christ's Richest Blessings,

Fr. Leszek Semik

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Whether it is the surgeon performing an operation or the pilot directing a flight, one expects them to be alert. When we entrust our lives to someone, we presume that they will attend to them with the utmost care and vigilance. If we have this expectation of others, why would we not have it of ourselves? Our lives are precious vessels on an eternal journey. We can only stay afloat and on the course because of God's love and mercy. It is easy to get distracted, lazy, preoccupied, and tired. Apathy can wreak havoc on the most dedicated of souls. God's word transforms all that it touches, even a lukewarm heart. Let us seek God's grace this Advent season so that we can walk more fully in His light. Then, finding ourselves more attentive, focused, alert, and watchful, we will be eager and well prepared to meet our Lord when He comes. Why would we not want to be ready, awake, and watchful for the One we have waited for so long?

ADVENT PRAYER

Come, Lord Jesus.

O God, you are great indeed.

Look upon us and reveal your glory, promised to Abraham and sent to us through David and his lineage.

Send us the warmth of your love, the light of your Word, the vision of your wisdom, and the comfort of your people. Open our hearts in welcome and grant us your salvation. Fill our minds with watchful hope and let us see your kindness.

Give us new life, the promise and joy of salvation. May the glory of your Son dwell in our land forever. We pray: Come, Lord Jesus. Amen.

DID YOU KNOW? NOVEMBER 26-27

Dangerous TikTok trend: "sleepy chicken"

The Food and Drug Administration (FDA) recently issued a notice advising people against participating in a dangerous TikTok trend: cooking chicken in NyQuil, a nighttime cold medicine. According to videos on the popular social media site, people are cooking "sleepy chicken" as a challenge, but the FDA warning indicates it may be more than a harmless joke. Cooking with cough medicine can lead to a person ingesting dangerously high amounts of codeine that can cause serious health complications and even death. For more information about this trend, read The New York Times article here: <https://www.nytimes.com/2022/09/21/technology/nyquil-chicken-tiktok-fda.html>.
