THE SEASON THAT GIVES BACK

I don't have anything left to give.
You can't pour from an empty cup.
All I do is give. Who is giving to me?

Raise your hand if these thoughts have ever run through your head. I'm sure they occur to all of us from time to time. We can become so easily depleted by the fast pace of life and whatever vocation God has called us to, whether that's parenthood, a demanding professional career or the caretaking of friends and family (or as so often happens, a hybrid of all three). Many of us also undergo certain seasons — seasons of the year, but also seasons of life — that seem to sap us of energy and leave us totally empty.

In these times, it seems impossible to continue in the spirituality of Everyday Stewardship. Graciousness, mindfulness, prayerfulness, gratitude, accountability — maintaining some semblance of these characteristics in our daily life feels not only overly optimistic, but totally impossible.

The Church gives us certain liturgical seasons that are meant to fill us up, almost like spiritual pit stops. Advent is one such season, and the Scriptural passages we reflect on at Mass during these four weeks are filled with images of nature defied. We see the dry steppe blooming. We see the weak made firm. We see the frightened made strong. We see the lame walk. We see the Virgin give birth.

If you think you don't have anything left to give this Advent, think again. This is the season of miracles when what we thought was depleted brings new life.

KIDS' CORNER

... WE WILL CALL UPON YOUR NAME.

PSALM 80:19

During Advent, it's fun to get ready to celebrate Christmas.

It is also important to remember the reason for this season. Get ready in your heart to celebrate the coming of Jesus as a Savior for all people.

This Advent, share God's love with others. Open your heart to the needs of other people. Think about what you can give rather than what you want to get. How can you help someone this Advent?

GOD OF HOPE, HELP ME TURN TO YOU AND KNOW YOU ARE ALWAYS WITH ME.

From the book entitled "Living Faith Kids" by Imprimatur Bishop Mark S. Rivituso

HOLY MOMENTS

Holy Moments give meaning and divine purpose to our lives.

Holy Moments by Matthew Kelly is now available to all parishioners, thanks to the prayerful contemplation and generosity of a fellow parishioner who donated 325 copies for all to enjoy. Please take one copy per family. The books are located in the vestibule and the table by the West exit door.

BEHOLD - ADVENT DEVOTIONAL

Let the Holy Family be your light through Advent as you receive the healing power of Christ. This Advent Fr. Leszek has selected Behold by St. Miriam James Heidland, SOLT. In this beautiful guided journal for prayer and meditation, Sr. Miriam James Heidland, SOLT—author of the bestselling book Restore—will walk with you as you explore familial wounds with the help of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. Each week you are invited to reflect on the season through the eyes of Mother Mary (Motherhood), Father Joseph (Fatherhood), Baby Jesus (childhood), and Stable (Restoration of Peace). 1 copy per family will be available in the Vestibule of the Church and the side table at the West exit door, while supplies last.

HALLOW APP THIS ADVENT

We have partnered with Hallow this Advent; encouraging all parishioners to prepare their hearts this season by incorporating prayer into each day. This Advent, we're inviting you to join Hallow's #Pray25 Challenge: Journey through Salvation History featuring the cast of 'The Chosen.' Will you accept the Hallow #Pray25 Advent Challenge?

Explore four themes of hope, faith, joy and peace, corresponding with the weeks of Advent. Each Sunday, users will listen to a meditation on the week's theme. Download the app and see how this tool can enrich your prayer life. Parish wide subscription is available to all those interested in using the app. Please find instructions at: <https://www.st-anastasia.org/announcements/> or email ddupree@st-anastasia.org. Your subscription will run from Advent to Easter.
